Scripture Readings
May 29, 2016
The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ
(Corpus Christi)

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20
 Melchizedek, a priest of God, prayed that Abram would be blessed by God. He also praised God for delivering Abram's foes into his hands.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26
 Paul describes Jesus' actions during the last supper. Jesus broke bread and said it was his body given for us, asking that we do the same in remembrance of him. He then passed the cup and called it his blood. Jesus then asked us to break bread in this manner to remember his death until he returns.

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17
 Jesus spoke to a large crowd when his disciples asked that he dismiss the people to give them a chance to find food and lodging. Jesus asked the disciples to give the crowd something to eat, but they had only five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus then blessed and distributed the food, which fed about 5,000 people. Twelve baskets were then collected from what was left over.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

This time of year is busy with communions, confirmations, graduations, weddings, the end of school, ordinations, and of course transitioning into summer. In many ways it marks the end of one thing and the beginning of something new. A new beginning, a fresh start is always a good thing. I would like to share with you an excerpt from Matthew Kelly's book, Rediscovering Jesus.

"One of the things I love about our faith is that our God is a God of second chances, fresh starts, and new beginnings. In the Bible we read these epic tales of the incredible ways that God transformed people and their lives: Moses, Noah, Jonah, Jeremiah, David, Joseph, Mary, Peter, James, Matthew, Zacchaeus, Paul, Lydia, Mary Magdalene, the woman at the well, and so many others whose names we don't know. Why not you and me? Why not now? God is always waiting on us. Sometimes we may think we are waiting for him, but that is never true.

What's happening in your life right now? What's not working in your life? What great question are you grappling with in your heart? Do you need a fresh start too? Whenever I get to a place in my life where things aren't making sense, it always seems that I need to rediscover Jesus. Jesus is the ultimate new beginning."

Take advantage of this time of year. Have a new beginning in your relationship with Jesus and his Church.

Peace,
Fr. Jared

WORDS OF MERCY AND HOPE BY POPE FRANCIS

The true worth of our apostolate is measured by the value it has in God's eyes. To see and evaluate things from God's perspective calls for constant conversion in the first days and years of our vocation and, need I say, great humility. The cross shows us a different way of measuring success. Ours is to plant the seeds: God sees to the fruits of our labors. And if at times our efforts and works seem to fail and produce no fruit, we need to remember that we are followers of Jesus... and his life, humanly speaking, ended in failure, the failure of the cross (Vespers with Priests & Religious, St. Patrick's Cathedral).

NEWS FROM THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION OFFICE

Religious Education registration will be opening shortly. Please note that forms will not be mailed home this year; instead all registration information will be emailed. You can also print out the forms from the website once registration has opened.

We have an exciting new curriculum this year, the Be My Disciples series. It uses a Christ centered balanced approach to catechesis with doctrine, Scripture, tradition and spirituality. It leads children and their families to grow in their conversion to Jesus Christ, accept the demands of discipleship, decide each day to choose life in Christ, and live as active members of the Catholic Church.

We have an exciting Religious Education year coming up with service projects to support those less fortunate.

Looking ahead, we are planning a fall and spring Family Fun night. I will be putting together a committee over the summer to help implement these two evenings, so please consider joining this committee. Contact me at DRE@stcatherine-ml.org or (973) 334-5257.

Thanks and God bless,
Lisa Gervasio
