First Reading: 1 Kings 17:17-24
 The child of the mistress of the house where Elijah sojourned became ill and died. The woman pleaded with Elijah who took the son and prayed over him. When the child revived Elijah returned him to his mother who recognized Elijah as "a man of God."

Second Reading: Galatians 1:11-19
 Paul proclaims the gospel, not as human, but coming from the revelation of Jesus Christ. Paul continues to acknowledge his own sinfulness and call to grace.

Gospel: Luke 7:11-17
 The gospel continues to recount the miracles and healing powers of Jesus. As Jesus neared the gates to the city of Nain, they came upon a deceased young man who was being carried out of the city. His mother, a widow, and a large crowd accompanying the body, met Jesus on the way. Compassionately, Jesus comforts the weeping mother and restores life to the dead man.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ, the Eucharist. It is the "source and summit" of our faith. The Eucharist is Jesus' perpetual gift of himself to sustain us. This weekend we pray for all the men and women who, like Christ, laid down their lives in service to our nation so that we may be sustained in our freedom and ways of life. We offer this prayer for them:

Good and gracious God,

On this Memorial Day we pray for those who have made the ultimate sacrifice defending our freedom and way of life. Hold the men and women in the Armed Forces in your strong embrace as they stand on the front lines for our protection. We also pray for their families. Fill their homes with your peace, hope, and joy. May the members of our Armed Forces be supplied with courage to face each day and may they trust in your mighty power to accomplish each task. Let our military brothers and sisters feel our love and support. In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray, Amen.

"That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth." -- Abraham Lincoln, Gettysburg Address, 1863

Peace,
Fr. Jared

WORDS OF MERCY AND HOPE BY POPE FRANCIS

Another danger comes when we become jealous of our free time, when we think that surrounding ourselves with worldly comforts will help us serve better. The problem with this reasoning is that it can blunt the power of God's daily call to conversion, to encounter with him. Slowly but surely, it diminishes our spirit of sacrifice, renunciation and hard work (Vespers with Priests & Religious, St. Patrick's Cathedral).

NEWS FROM THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION OFFICE

Religious Education registration will be opening shortly. Please note that forms will not be mailed home this year; instead all registration information will be emailed. You can also print out the forms from the website once registration has opened.

We have an exciting new curriculum this year, the Be My Disciples series. It uses a Christ centered balanced approach to catechesis with doctrine, Scripture, tradition and spirituality. It leads children and their families to grow in their conversion to Jesus Christ, accept the demands of discipleship, decide each day to choose life in Christ, and live as active members of the Catholic Church.

Also we will be using Chosen for the 9th and 10th grades. It is a comprehensive learning experience for teens to fully embrace a life in Christ. We have an exciting Religious Education year coming up with service projects to support those less fortunate.

Looking ahead, we are planning a fall and spring Family Fun night. I will be putting together a committee over the summer to help implement these two evenings, so please consider joining this committee. Contact me at DRE@stcatherine-ml.org or (973) 334-5257.

Thanks and God bless,
Lisa Gervasio
