Scripture Readings
 October 15, 2017
 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

This passage describes the new Jerusalem as a heavenly banquet on the mountain with the Lord God wiping away all tears.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

In simple, direct words, Paul thanks the Philippians for alleviating his hardships. He stresses, though, that he is as accustomed to poverty as to abundance and finds all his strength in Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

Once more speaking to the chief priests and the elders, Jesus relates the parable of the wedding banquet. A King, preparing a wedding banquet for his son, summons all the invited guests. When, after several invitations, no guests arrive, the King commands his servants to "go out into the byroads and invite anyone you come upon." Again, Jesus warns the elders, "the invited are many, the elect are few."

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

God is good all the time! All the time God is good! This mantra is well known to all of our Religious Education students. I thought of this as we celebrated our 60th Anniversary last weekend. God has been good to us. We are truly blessed! The liturgy with Bishop Serratelli was exquisite. The liturgy was enhanced by all of our ministers who served at the Eucharist: ministers of welcome, readers, servers, our seminarian Sebastian, parish music ministers: the choir, cantors, soloists, and all the musicians. It was good to see faces from the past like Fr. Joe Garbarino and Sr. Charlotte. I want to thank Whitney Dubose, Barbara and Jeff Buck, Susan McWilliams, Ann McCarthy, Marie and Rich Westerman, and Rich and Ann DeVenezia for all of their hard work with the Gala and Journal. Thank you to each of you who continually support the parish and work to make St. Catherine's a vibrant and faith filled community. Let us continue the celebration for at least another sixty years, joyfully celebrating and living our faith!
