Scripture Readings
April 10, 2016
Third Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41

The high priest chastised Peter and the other apostles for continuing to preach when they had been ordered to stop. Peter replied he would rather obey God than men, considering God's power even over death. They are again warned to stop speaking of Jesus, and then freed.

Second Reading: Revelation 5:11-14

John had a vision of many angels and all the living creatures of the world gathered around a throne. The angels cried out that the slain Lamb was worthy of receiving power, glory and praise. Then every creature on earth called out praise to God and the Lamb, and the elders fell down and worshipped.

Gospel: John 21:1-19

Jesus appeared to the disciples for the third time since his resurrection while they were fishing. They hadn't caught anything, and then Jesus advised them to cast their net from the other side of the boat. When they did this, they caught a great number of fish. Jesus then asked Peter three times, "Do you love me?" When Peter said he did, Jesus asked him to tend and feed his sheep.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

On this second Sunday of Easter, the Octave of Easter, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. Today is a powerful reminder that the risen Lord is very much alive and working in His Church and in our lives. As he appeared to his apostles in the upper room on the first Easter evening, he appears to us as Pope Francis reminds us to caress and heal the wounds caused by our sins. With Easter grace are empowered to choose to trust Him and let Him work as he wills in our lives.

I would like to thank all of you who did so much in service to God and our parish family during Holy Week and Easter. Once again I was moved by the countless women and men at our parish who gave of themselves—their time, their talent and their treasure—to make our parish a joyful, beautiful, welcoming community of worship. I want to thank our readers, altar servers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, ministers of welcome (ushers), cantors, choir, environment committee (decorating), and all who attended the liturgies. We had record crowds beginning on Palm Sunday, throughout the Triduum, and Easter Sunday. Though I know you don't give of yourselves for praise, we—I—must thank God for you, and thank you for your gift of self. My heart is very grateful to you and to God because of you. May God bless you for your tireless service!

Peace,
Fr. Jared

WORDS OF MERCY AND HOPE
BY POPE FRANCIS

Joseph was someone who asked questions. But first and foremost, he was a man of faith. Faith gave Joseph the power to find light just as the moment when everything seemed dark. Faith sustained him amid the troubles of life. Thanks to faith, Joseph was able to press forward when everything seemed to be holding back. (Meeting with Homeless in Washington, DC)

HOLY DOOR PILGRIMAGE

Pope Francis encourages each of us to make a pilgrimage to the Holy Door in our diocese some time during this Jubilee of Mercy. Being committed to the journey of pilgrimage helps us focus our attention on our spiritual journey and walk closer with God.

The Holy Door in our diocese is at St. Margaret of Scotland Church, Morristown. Each Tuesday during this year is known as "Mercy Tuesday" which allows pilgrims to go to St. Margaret and celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, pray before the Blessed Sacrament, and celebrate Mass. The schedule of events for "Mercy Tuesdays" is as follows: Mass is celebrated at 8 am in English and 7 pm in Spanish. There is Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament from 3:45 pm-6:45 pm. Confessions will be heard from 4 pm-6:45 pm. A Mass for the Sick will be held each first Saturday at 10 am.
