Scripture Readings
May 22, 2016
The Most Holy Trinity

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

God created Wisdom before he created the earth or the skies. This spirit stood beside God every day until the earth was complete, then "found delight in the people of the earth." This indicates that the spirit of wisdom was later personified by Jesus.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Paul says that we are now at peace with God through our faith in Jesus. We also hope to see the glory of God. This hope will not leave us disappointed because of the love God has shown in sending us the Holy Spirit.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Jesus tells the disciples that when he leaves them, a Spirit will help guide them to the truth. This Spirit will announce what he hears from Jesus, rather than speaking on his own. Everything God has also belongs to Jesus, which is why those things announced by the Spirit will actually come from Jesus.

From the Desk of Fr. Jared

For the past fifty days we have been celebrating the Paschal Mystery...the Resurrection, Ascension, and descent of the Holy Spirit. Today the Easter Season comes to an end with the celebration of Pentecost. The same Holy Spirit that propelled the disciples in the early Church to live as witnesses of the risen Christ animates us through Baptism, Confirmation and all the Sacraments to be living witnesses of the risen Christ in the world. The tradition of the Church teaches about seven gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Seven gifts of the Holy Spirit (adapted from Busted Halo)

- Wisdom allows us to see God working in the world always and everywhere.
- Understanding gives us deeper insight into the truths of our faith.
- Right Counsel (counsel) helps us to distinguish between right and wrong and to choose the right.
- Fortitude gives us the courage to stand up for what is right despite popular opinion.
- Knowledge enables us to recognize God's purpose for our lives.
- Piety (Reverence) helps us recognize our need for God.
- Fear of the Lord (awe and wonder) is recognizing the enormity of God and our desire to do right by him.

*Breathe in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my thoughts may all be holy.
Act in me, O Holy Spirit,
That my work, too, may be holy.
Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit,
That I love but what is holy.
Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit,
To defend all that is holy.
Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit,
That I always may be holy.*

(St. Augustine)

Peace,
Fr. Jared

WORDS OF MERCY AND HOPE BY POPE FRANCIS

Dear brothers and sisters, in a few moments we will sing the Magnificat. Let us commend to Our Lady the work we have been entrusted to do; let us join her in thanking God for the great things he has done, and for the great things he will continue to do in us and in those whom we have the privilege to serve. (Vespers with Priests & Religious, St. Patrick's Cathedral).
